Glades Mercantile New Building

Joe Alderman, proprietor of Glades Mercantile in Pahokee, said yesterday that work has started on a new building to replace the one destroyed by fire several months ago. The new structure will be concrete and steel.

The new building to house the popular furniture concern will be 100x112 feet with a basement, 30x100 for a workshop, Mr. Alderman said. The new building will be modern in every respect and fully air conditioned.

Since the store was destroyed by fire, the Mercantile concern has been operating from a warehouse owned by Mr. Alderman and located next door to the woman's club in Pahokee.

Cloverleaf Camp For 4-H Members

A number of 4-H members of the area will leave Monday to attend a week of camp at 4-H Camp Cloverleaf at Lake Placid.

The privilege of attending camp was earned by the boys and girls who worked hard on their projects to complete them.

Among those to attend from Canal Point are Nancy Harrington, Ross Harrington, Lillian Sims, Pam and Ralena Ursy, Glennie Trett and Kay Hall.

Those to attend from Pahokee are Penny and Marsha Pennington, Nancy Watkins and Debbie Sullivan.

Nancy Harrington and Penny Pennington will serve as counselors at Camp Cloverleaf.

A hearing on requirements in the county building code was asked by the Ellis Tower Company, Ft. Lauderdale, a firm which erects a number of towers for privately owned two-way radio systems located in Palm Beach County.

County Will Help Brown's Farm Road

The Palm Beach County Commission this week pledged its cooperation to a group of property owners who seek improvement of a 2.5 mile extension of Brown's Farm Road.

The land owners holdings are adjacent to the Hillsboro Canal, right of way where the proposed road is located. The county board voted this week that if property owners would finance construction of the extended section, the county in turn would do what it could to obtain right of way for the project. Right of way would have to come from the Central and South Florida Flood Control District which controls the canal and adjacent spoil area.

LIONS MEETING

The regular weekly meeting of the Canal Point Lions Club was held at the Canal Point Community Building, Monday night. Harlan Sears, vice-president, presided in the absence of the president, Melvin Paul. Guests attending the dinner included Boyd Mathis of Belle Glade.

Sugar Boom Going Strong In Glades

Everything points to an increase in the sugar industry in Western Palm Beach county. Much new acreage is planned for this fall, according to the best information available here in the middle of the summer. The past season's crop will be dwarfed by the upcoming 1963-64 crop, it is believed.

Here are the factors on which the rosy estimates of Glades sugar production—centered in Palm Beach, Hendry and Glades Counties—are based:

Plantings for this year up to 154,000 acres, compared to 139,000 acres last year.

Odds against the area suffering a freeze like last winter's, which destroyed 20,000 acres of cane completely and sharply reduced the yield from tens of thousands of other acres.

New Mills, many of them not completed when last year's freeze hit, will be fully operational this season—a big factor in saving any cane that might be damaged by frost.

"Since all the mills will be operational, we could have expected a big jump in production even if no additional acreage had been planted," said Ray Gantt, head of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office in Moore Haven.

And there'll be a tremendous boost in 1964.

Acreage restrictions that had held down expansion were removed in May—too late for farmers to get additional cane into the ground for the current crop.

"But you can bet they'll be out there planting like mad between now and November," Gantt predicted.

Many of the new mills were built with oversize grinding capacity, allowing them to expand production without mill alternations.

Dunkelman Is Lions Speaker

Preston Dunkelman was guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Pahokee Lions Club Tuesday, with the president, A. J. Gamot, presiding.

Introduced by program chairman, Glenn Brower, Mr. Dunkelman showed colored slides of the cane breeding operation in Canal Point. He stated that the U. S. D. A., established here in 1921, originally bred the major part of its cane for Louisiana, but in recent years it has produced more for Florida. He explained that it takes 10 years from the start of the hybridizing process to develop a new strain. Each time a new strain is developed, the attempt is made to make it resistant to insects and disease, but the insects and disease also change their life patterns to conform.

Guests attending included Bob Adams of Clewiston, Ronald Terhaar, and Jimmy Wilson who was the guest of his uncle, Leon Spooner.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Duke and sons are spending their vacation camping out at Fisheating Creek while he is on leave from the U. S. Post Office at Pahokee.

Her husband, William H. Cashwell, 50, a passenger in the car, was taken to Everglades Memorial Hospital in shock and with forehead lacerations.

Highway Patrolman A. G. Larsen and Lt. H. Gillett said she was driving east on SR 717, ran a stop sign and drove into the canal. Cashwell escaped from the car, but Mrs. Cashwell submerged with it. Her body was recovered an hour later.

Local Team Ends Season In First

The Canal Point Lions had two no hit games, pitched by M. McCall and D. Goodson. Goodson pitched 3 shut-out games and pitched in most of the games played. He only walked 2 players. D. L. Hooks was the coach.

Glades County Gets $52,000 From Us

Glades County is richer by nearly $52,000 this week and Palm Beach County is out of pocket by the same amount.

The money was paid to Glades County by the State Comptroller, the result in an error in boundary lines between the two counties. The corrected line favored Palm Beach County's neighbor and the state warrants represented a share of gasoline taxes which used to be paid to Palm Beach County.

Here Is What Transpired At Monday's Meeting Of The Palm Beach County Commission

The County Commission Monday received bids on several large projects—one which calls for resurfacing a runway and improvement of a taxi-way at International Airport.

The airport project will be financed jointly by county and federal funds.

Apparent low bidder on the job was the Rubin Construction Company, West Palm Beach, at a price of $154,950.

Apparent low bidder for construction of a 125-foot bridge on Monet Road over Canal-18 was Cleary Brothers Construction Co., West Palm Beach at a price of $34,160.

Hardrives, Inc., of Delray Beach appeared to be the low bidder for improvement of El Camino Real in Boca Raton. Price quoted was $77,022.

The commission noted that the Boca Raton project was about $7,000 over estimates and that it would be necessary to transfer funds within the county budget in order to complete the project.

City Products In Soft Ball Lead

The City Products fast-pitch softball team of Pahokee now has a 12-2 record after a split of a doubleheader with Pratt & Whitney of W. P. D., winning the first game 4-3, behind Phil Bonnell's four-hit pitching efforts, and dropping the second contest 8-6 leaving 15 men on the bases. Then victory number twelve was annexed when Butch Butler and Bonnell combined to throw a no-hitter at Indiantown behind a 17-hit barrage from their team mates, to win 13-2.

Butch Butler hit a solo home run in the first contest Sunday to start a come-from-behind effort that pulled the game out of the fire. In the second game City Products scattered 10 hits but couldn't put together the scoring combination as they left 15 men on base while losing, 8-6.

Dow McClelland, Bob Maxson, and Joe Davis each whacked out three hits apiece in a 17-hit barrage of Indiantown while Jeff Barwick and George McElhenry drilled out two apiece.

A six-run second inning proved too much for Indiantown as Butler and Bonnell closed the door and did not give up a hit, however, errors led to two unearned runs. Back-to-back triples by Barwick and Alvy Early accounted for four of the runs in the second inning. City Products will host Vero Beach in a game to begin at 8:30 Friday night at Pahokee's City Park.

Probable Starting Lineup:

Jeff Barwick (.227), cf
Alvy Early (.290), ss

Insurance Plan Told To Veterans

In the event of the death of an older war veteran, will his GI insurance funds be distributed in accordance with his current wishes?

Not in more than 50 percent of the cases, says the Veterans Administration, as the result of a recent survey.

The VA had directed a reminder letter to GI policyholders 60 years of age and older to check on the beneficiary choices the veteran had originally made as well as his selection of a lump settlement or payments over a period of time.

In 55 percent of the veterans' replies, changes were requested to bring the insurance settlement in line with the veterans' current wishes, L. V. McClelland, local Veterans Service Officer, said.

Most common cases were those in which marriage had subsequently taken place but the mother of the veteran was still listed as a chief beneficiary. In numerous other cases, the veteran had remarried, but his former wife was still listed as the beneficiary.

Under the law, the VA must make payment to the beneficiary of record, as named in writing by the policyholder, McClelland emphasized.

The VA will continue to send a reminder to all GI policyholders 60 years or older and will notify other policyholders as they reach their 60th birthday.

Younger veterans, whose pre-ben outdated by death, marriage, divorce, etc., may write directly to the office maintaining their insurance records should they wish to initiate a change.

Servicemen may see their Personnel Affairs or Finance Officer for the same purpose.

Florida Is Ready For More Tourists

TALLAHASSEE — Florida is prepared for another fall-winter tourist advertising campaign that will again remind snowbound northerners they would "rather be in Florida."

The Florida Development Commission, terming its 1962 campaign under that slogan a success, has voted to continue it for another year and step up advertising of package vacations at special rates.

Louis Benito, president of the Tampa advertising agency handling the commission's account, said the 1962 campaign boosted air travel to Florida 24 per cent, rail travel 46 per cent, and bus travel 48 per cent.

The 1962 campaign was in three stages: fall cut-rate package trips; a December holiday push, and an "escape winter" program.

This same plan will be followed again with the three stages conditioning northerners to think about sunny Florida as the cold weather increases.

In addition, a special industrial campaign stressing the climate of Florida and its advantages to industrial firms has been prepared. It has been designed to bring 25,000 new jobs to Florida by inviting new investment.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dalton are living at Canal Point since moving recently from Knoxville, Tenn. Mr. Dalton is employed at Roy Thompson Garage, and Mrs. Dalton is the sister of Mrs. James Weeks of Pahokee.

*"Today we need a nation of Minute Men . . . .
citizens who regard the preservation of freedom as a basic purpose of their daily life . . . ."*

—JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

10 days after his inauguration as the 35th President of the United States.

Twenty years ago, in the dark, uneasy days before Pearl Harbor, the Minute Man of Concord, timeless symbol of our Nation's determination to defend its freedom, emerged as the emblem of the U. S. Savings Bonds Program. When war came, the Minute Man became the rallying force behind the huge and overwhelmingly successful effort to back our fighting men with War Bonds.

In this, the 20th anniversary year of Savings Bonds, the Minute Man of Concord calls all Americans to an unremitting effort to help preserve our peace and freedom, threatened by forces more powerful and resourceful than those we faced in 1941. Though this effort will take many forms, one way open to all is the continued investment in Shares in America, U. S. Savings Bonds, by "citizens who regard the preservation of freedom as a basic purpose of their daily life."

LONG ARM OF THE DREDGE—Everyone has heard of the long arm of the law, but enterprising contractors working to raise the dikes around Lake Okeechobee to provide better control of water in the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District, have come up with this very unusual long arm conveyor to transport and deposit material dredged from the lake to the Herbert Hoover Dike at left of photo. The conveyor, longer than a football field, (compare size with truck near end of conveyor) makes it possible for dredging contractor to work farther out in the lake without the problem of multiple handling of material. Dredge deposits material in hopper at rear of conveyor where it is transplanted by endless metal belt to dike. One of the best features of the huge machine is that the conveyor moves right along with the dredge as work progresses. This scene is part of an overall program (now 2-3 completed) to encircle the lake with dikes. Ultimately, the Corps of Engineers hopes to store two or three feet more water in the 730-square-mile lake. (FCD Aerial Photo).

New $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest on U.S. Savings Bonds

The Treasury explains why the new ones you buy and the ones you own now are better than ever

Q: How does the new  $3\frac{3}{4}\%$  interest rate benefit me?

A: With Series E Bonds, the rate turns $18.75 into $25.00 fourteen months faster than the old rate. Your savings increase faster, because your Bonds mature in just 7 years, 9 months.

With Series H Bonds, the 10-year maturity period stays the same but more interest is paid you each six months. With both E and H Bonds the new rate works out to  $2\frac{3}{4}\%$  for the first year and a half; then a guaranteed  $4\%$  each year to maturity.

Q: When did the new rate become effective?

A: June 1, 1959.

Q: Does the new rate change the Bonds I bought before June 1, 1959?

A: All older E and H Bonds pay more now—an extra  $\frac{1}{4}\%$  from now on, when held to maturity. The increase takes effect in the first full interest period after June 1.

Q: Will the Bonds I own automatically earn their new rate?

A: Yes. You don't need to do a thing—just hold on to your Bonds.

Q: When my E Bonds mature, will they keep on earning interest?

A: Yes. An automatic 10-year extension privilege went into effect along with the new interest rate. This means your E Bonds will automatically keep earning interest after maturity.

Q: With the new interest rate, should I cash in my old Bonds and buy new ones?

A: No. The automatic  $1\frac{1}{4}\%$  increase makes it unnecessary—and in almost every case it is to your advantage to retain your present Bonds.

Q: How are series H Bonds different from series E Bonds?

A: The chief difference is this: You buy H Bonds at full face value and the interest is paid by Treasury check every six months for the life of the Bond. You buy E Bonds at 75% of face value and the interest accumulates to maturity. H Bonds provide income for living expenses, while E Bonds build a nest egg for the future. That's why many retired people hold H Bonds and families saving for, say, a child's education, buy E Bonds.

Q: In what denominations can I buy series E and series H Bonds?

A: E Bonds: $25 (cost $18.75), $50 (cost $37.50), $100 (cost $75.00), $200 (cost $150.00), $500 (cost $375.00), $1,000 (cost $750.00), $10,000 (cost $7,500.00).

H Bonds: $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000. They are priced at face value.

Q: How safe are U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Savings Bonds are an absolutely riskless way to save. The United States Government guarantees the cash value of your Bonds will not drop, that it can only grow.

Q: What if my Bonds should be lost, stolen or destroyed?

A: You can't lose. Every Bond purchased is recorded by the Treasury. If anything happens to your Bonds they are replaced—free.

Q: Where can I buy Bonds?

A: Buy E Bonds at any bank—it takes only a few minutes. Buy them automatically through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. This Plan means you can have any amount you name automatically deducted every payday. The Bonds you buy by installments are delivered to you automatically, too. Your bank will take your order for H Bonds.

Q: How do I help strengthen America's peace power when I buy U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Peace costs money—money for military strength and for science. And money saved by individuals helps keep our economy sound.

Secondary Funds In SRD Shriveled

Palm Beach County secondary road fund which is administered by the State Road Department shriveled from millions to thousands in a report made Monday by County Engineer George Frost.

Frost told the county board that there has always been a wide difference in the amount of secondary funds shown at the Road Department's main office at Tallahassee; at the SRD district office at Ft. Lauderdale and in the county engineer's office.

The engineer told the board that he had reviewed the fund which the state quotes as $3.6 million on tap and found it to be something in the area of only a $14,000 surplus.

Frost said he had taken the states figures and deducted up coming commitments from the fund to arrive at his surplus. A lag in state book keeping may be the explanation in the great variance in the two totals.

Future projects in the fund, Frost reported, call for an expenditure of $1.5 for construction and an additional $320,000 for right of way costs.
